

School of Public Health Employer Engagement Program

The School of Public Health-Bloomington Employer Engagement Program is designed to enhance an employer's interactions with SPH student talent while creating a stronger presence on campus and to assist employers in achieving their goal of finding top-notch candidates for internship and job opportunities. By becoming an Engaged Employer, companies provide the support needed for the Office of Career Services to continue to develop, enhance, and implement career development programs and services.

To learn more about these exciting opportunities, please contact Sarah Cady at scady@indiana.edu / 812.856.7224.

EXECUTIVE LEVEL ($3000)

- Promotion of on-campus networking events, information sessions, and internship postings, etc. (unlimited)
- Four Employer spotlight features on School of Public Health Career Services Website (two per semester)
- Recognition as Executive Level partner on School of Public Health Career Services Website (includes logo and link)
- Company name and logo prominently displayed in the School of Public Health Career Services Office
- Priority scheduling for on-campus School of Public Health recruiting activities and events
- Prominent recognition as an Executive Partner in School of Public Health career event programs
- High-traffic table placement at School of Public Health Career Events
- Best available placement for next day interviews in conjunction with School of Public Health Career Event Participation

DIRECTOR LEVEL ($2000)

- Promotion of on-campus networking events, information sessions, and internship/job postings, etc. (up to five times per semester)
- Two Employer Spotlight Features on School of Public Health Career Services Website (one per semester)
- Recognition as Director Level partner on School of Public Health Career Services Website (includes logo with link)
- Company name and logo displayed in the School of Public Health Career Services Office
- Priority scheduling for on-campus School of Public Health recruiting activities and events
- Prominent recognition as Director Level partner in School of Public Health career event programs
- High-traffic table placement at School of Public Health Career Events
- Best available placement for next day interviews in conjunction with School of Public Health Career Event Participation

ASSOCIATE LEVEL ($1000)

- Promotion of on-campus networking events, information sessions, and internship postings, etc. (up to two times per semester)
- One Employer Spotlight Feature on School of Public Health Career Services Website (based on availability)
- Recognition as Associate Partner on School of Public Health Career Services Website (logo only)
- Company name displayed in the School of Public Health Career Services Office
- Priority scheduling for on-campus School of Public Health recruiting activities and events
- Prominent recognition as Associate Partner in School of Public Health career event programs
- High-traffic table placement at School of Public Health Career Events
- Best available placement for next day interviews in conjunction with School of Public Health Career Event Participation